Week 3: "Who is Jesus?"

Discuss

1) How does viewing Jesus as "the very center of all human existence and man's only hope" differ from how the world sees Jesus?

2) If someone were to ask, "Who is Jesus to you?", how would you answer?

3) Pretend you are having a conversation with an unbelieving neighbor. They tell you that they believe that Jesus was a very good moral teacher, like Gandhi. Confucius, or Aristotle. How could you use this as an opportunity to share the gospel?

4) During the last week, what opportunities did you have where you could have shared the gospel?

5) How can you create opportunities this week to share the gospel?

Pray

Who in your life do you want to share the gospel with? Share with the group so that they may be praying for you.

Share other prayer requests that you may have, and then close your discussion with a time of prayer.
